REOPEN, REINSTATE AND RECOGNIZE

Join us on Black Friday at GUESS stores around the country to tell the Marciano family to respect worker rights and reopen the Marciano Art Foundation (MAF), reinstate their workers and recognize their union.

The Marciano Family, who founded GUESS and the Marciano Art Foundation, an art museum in Los Angeles, have a long history of union busting, paying poverty wages and exploiting workers' rights. Just in time for the holidays, the Marcianos laid off the nearly 70 Visitor Services staff at the Marciano Art Foundation four days after workers filed to unionize. Wear your green and black to show support.
